

Hannah Brison

Associate

Queen's Marquee

600-1741 Lower Water Street

Halifax, N.S.

B3J 0J2

Phone: +1.902.420.3315

Fax: +1.902.420.1417

hbrison@stewartmckelvey.com

LinkedIn Profile

Language(s) spoken: English

Bar Admission(s): Nova Scotia, 2022

Legal Assistant(s): Kayte-Lynn Pearcey

Hannah uses her attention to detail and work ethic to undertake a thorough consideration of relevant legal issues and provide practical and effective client-centered advice.

Practice Areas

Banking & Financing

Commercial Transactions/Agreements

Corporate Formation/Reorganization

Mergers & Acquisitions

Pensions & Benefits

Education & Career

Education

Dalhousie University Schulich School of Law, JD, 2021

Mount Allison University, BComm, 2016

Activities

Pro Bono Dalhousie, Nova Scotia Provincial Court Placement, 2019 – 2020

Pro Bono Dalhousie, Legal Information Society of Nova Scotia, 2018 – 2019

Player, Mount Allison Women's Soccer, 2012 – 2016

Tutor, Mounties in Motion, 2014 – 2016

Accolades

Canadian Energy Law Foundation Prize

Alistair Fraser Award in Family Law Subjects

Commerce Department Marketing Prize

Mount Allison University Dean's List

Academic All Canadian

Scholar Athlete of the Year

Thought Leadership

Recent trends in defined benefits pension plans – a review of public sector plans

July 28, 2022

Federal pension update: OSFI seeks input on proposed investment risk management guidance

April 14, 2022

Renoviction Ban lifted: the renoviction procedure in Nova Scotia

April 01, 2022