Katherine combines a strong work ethic with a solution-focused attitude to best serve her clients. She understands the value of providing strategic and practical advice, and anticipating her clients' needs. Katherine regularly acts for vendors and purchasers in asset and share deals. She also often works with in-house counsel for large national corporations to advise on a range of corporate matters and day-to-day business challenges. While Katherine focuses on forwarding her clients' legal goals to ensure they bring a competitive commercial advantage, her clients can stay focused on their business.
