

Mark MacDonald, K.C.

Counsel

Queen's Marque

600-1741 Lower Water Street

Halifax, N.S.

B3J 0J2

Phone: +1.902.444.1737

Fax: +1.902.420.1417

mmacdonald@stewartmckelvey.com

Language(s) spoken: English

Bar Admission(s): Nova Scotia, 1981

Legal Assistant(s): Heidi Butler

Mark practiced with Stewart McKelvey on a full time basis from 1981 to 2003 and since then has engaged in his own transportation business and been associated with a number of other leading businesses and organizations in Atlantic Canada and elsewhere. During his previous practice with the firm, Mark was a leading practitioner in several sectors including shipping, energy, natural resources and construction. He played important roles in a number of major Atlantic Canada projects, had associations with some of our region's leading entrepreneurs and played significant roles in the management of the firm. Now acting as counsel to Stewart McKelvey Mark continues to lend his legal background and broad business experience to the firm's clients and Atlantic Canada businesses.

Education & Career

Education

Dalhousie University, Bachelor of Science (Distinction) and Diploma in Engineering

Dalhousie University, Bachelor of Laws, 1980

Activities

Member, Canadian Bar Association

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Atlantic Ferries Holdings Limited and subsidiary operating companies.

Member, Advisory Board of the Bragg Group of Companies

Chair, Board of Directors, Scotia Investments Limited

Chair, Advisory Board, Acadian Seaplants Limited

Director and Treasurer, Interferry, the ferry industry's world wide organization

Past Chair, Halifax Port Authority (2007 – 2012)

Past Member, Marine Transportation Advisory Council

Past Chair, Sacred Heart School of Halifax

Accolades

King's Counsel, 1998